REPORTER'S NOTE: Exhibits retained by Mr. Morrissey.

1 creditors meeting at the bankruptcy court, and I went in
2 to question the debtor, and Nick Maimonis had a whole
3 bunch of questions he wanted me to ask, and I asked
4 them; most of them, anyway.

5 Q. So Premier made some contact with Mrs. Penzell?

6 A. Yes; a lot.

7 Q. When was your first contact directly with Premier
8 Capital?

9 A. Some time after that.

10 Q. Some time after what?

11 A. After their initial contact with the Penzell law
12 firm.

13 Q. And your understanding was that that was a
14 contact with Mrs. Penzell?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And that was essentially to notify Mrs. Penzell
17 that Premier had bought files?

18 A. Well, yes, and that they wanted to know about the 19 -- my understanding was the background on the existing 20 files that the law firm had and, you know, what was the 21 status of them, what were they doing. These are all
22 files that had been no-asseted, so they had to be dug
23 out.

24 Q. When you say a file was no-asseted, what do you
25 mean?

1 A. That means that the bank deemed that they were
2 uncollectible, so they put them together and they sell
3 them to you.

4 Q. Was the process of no-asseting a file, was that
5 something that you did?

6 A. No. That's the bank determines whether -- we can 7 say we can do this, this, this and this, you know, or we 8 can wait on it for a while, maybe wait for a year or two
9 on a file see if something pops up, but a lot of times a
10 bank will call in and say look, we decided we're not
11 going to spend anymore money on this or whatever, close
12 it.

13 Q. Did Bank of America communicate to the Penzell
14 law firm that a file was no-asseted?

15 A. You know, I think by the time that I got there,
16 like I said, everything had already been done with Bank
17 of America. They were rolled up, pretty much. It was 18 only the stray file that would come in occasionally from 19 somebody that had a judgment, say a judgment that had 20 been determined uncollectible but we were the attorney
21 of record, so they would contact us to find out how much
22 the lien was.

23 Q. Did you ever have any contact as inventory
24 attorney with Bank of America yourself?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Was Premier a new client?

2 A. No.

3 Q. What was Premier, then?

4 A. That's a good question. You tell me.

5 Q. Unfortunately, I get to ask the questions. But 6 what was your understanding of --

7 A. Premier is just a third party who bought closed
8 assets, and we have no duty to them, they weren't a
9 client of Kris Penzell, they weren't a client of Victor
10 Rones and they weren't my client.

11 Q. Did you do legal work for Premier at any point in 12 time as inventory attorney?

13 A. I did work for Premier, only -- not for Premier,
14 but for the estate of Kris Penzell when Premier had a
15 judgment to go in there and see if I could get any money
16 because the estate was owed money under the purchase and 17 sale agreement.

18 MR. MORRISSEY: Can we take a break?

19 (Brief recess.)

20 MR. CORRIGAN: I think when we left we had a
21 brief opportunity to talk about the last line of 22 questioning. I think Susan wants an opportunity to 23 clarify her response, if that's all right. I think 24 she's entitled to do that.

25 Q. Yeah. Let me ask it this way. Ms. Noe, is there

1 anything relevant to our most recent line of questioning
2 you would like to clarify?

3 A. Right. The only thing that I had a duty under 4 the 1998 agreement is to protect existing clients. That
5 does not include Premier because they never hired me. I
6 never represented Premier.

7 Q. And for the sake of being as clear as we can
8 about this, when you refer to the 1998 agreement, and 9 I'll be happy to adopt that shorthand, you're referring
10 to an agreement dating from 1998 involving Mr. Penzell;
11 is that right?

12 A. Mr. Penzell and Bank of America.

13 Q. Not a loan sale agreement.

14 A. No, not the loan purchase and sale agreement.

15 MR. SUSSMAN: Just to keep the record clean,
16 can we just describe that as the fee agreement and the 17 other as the loan sale agreement?

18 Q. Let me show you this document, Ms. Noe, and ask
19 if you've seen that before.

20 A. Yes, I have.

21 Q. Can you identify that for the record?

22 A. For the record, this is a contingency fee
23 agreement dated the 23rd of December 1998 between 24 NationsBank and Kris Penzell. That appears to be his 25 signature on the end.

1 relationship?

2 A. I have no idea.

3 Q. But your understanding is there is a written
4 agreement out there somewhere between Bank of America
5 and the Penzell law firm?

6 A. Possibly.

7 Q. But you don't know.

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. Do you know if there was a written agreement of 10 any kind between Premier and the Penzell law firm?

11 A. No, there's never been, not as long as I've been 12 inventory attorney.

13 Q. In looking over Exhibit 2, and if you'd need some 14 time to look through it, by all means do that. It's got
15 a number of pages to it. Did you as inventory attorney
16 at any time and for any entity perform work pursuant to 17 that agreement?

18 A. I don't remember. I don't think I did. The only
19 work that I ever did -- are you talking about 20 NationsBank or Bank of America?

21 Q. I'm talking about anybody.

22 A. Well, if it was this agreement, it would have to 23 be NationsBank, and do we know who NationsBank is?

24 Q. That was a question I had to you. Did you do any 25 work for NationsBank pursuant to that agreement as

1 Q. Redland Air Conditioning and Refrigeration, Inc.?

2 A. No.

3 Q. William E. Gerard?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Clifford Butler, Jr.?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Delma's Golden Needle?

8 A. No.

9 Q. James F. Ward?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What's your recollection with regard to James F. Ward?

12 A. Nick Maimonis called and said you have to go --
13 first he called Bev and said you have to send a 14 representative. Bev says, I can't go, I'm not an 15 attorney. I think they wanted Victor to go. Then
16 Victor couldn't go, so Susan, you go. I said why do I
17 have to go for? They said well, you have to protect the 18 assets, they think there's money there and these people
19 are declaring bankruptcy and they're trying to write off
20 a bunch of assets. I said well, I'd go on behalf of the 21 estate and see if there's money there. Nick says why
22 don't you ask all these questions, and he called me the 23 night before and gave me a list of questions to ask
24 about some possible fraudulent conveyances that happened

1 A. The estate of Kris Penzell.

2 Q. Not Premier.

3 A. No.

4 MR. MORRISSEY: Mark this as the next
5 exhibit.

6 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 8 was marked for 7 identification.)

8 Q. Have you seen the document marked as Exhibit 8
9 before?

10 A. Absolutely.

11 Q. Could you identify it for the record, please?

12 A. This was a bunch of -- this was the so-called --
13 these were the files that you had and that we were doing
14 research on to see if there was any further work that 15 could be done on, what could be done, what was the 16 current status of the files, because we discussed --

17 Q. If I could interrupt you, we'll get into the 18 substance of it, but just for the record, what is it?

19 Is there a fax cover sheet?

20 A. Yes, there is.

21 Q. And to whom is it addressed?

22 A. Nick Maimonis.

23 Q. And from whom?

24 A. From Bev.

25 Q. And does that fax cover sheet appear to pertain

1 and enclose other documents as part of this exhibit?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. And what are they, just for the record?

4 A. Thirteen pages including the cover document.

5 Q. Is there a letter that follows that fax cover
6 sheet, again just for the record?

7 A. Yes, there is. There's a letter on the Kris
8 Penzell letterhead.

9 Q. And after the letter, are there any other
10 additional documents?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. And what generically is that?

13 A. These are all the files that y'all, when I say
14 y'all, Premier, bought and they wanted to try to collect
15 on them, they said we need to hire a lawyer in Florida
16 and had been going back and forth for some weeks. We 17 went in through all the files and said this is what
18 needs to be done so that if you guys want to hire us,
19 this is what needs to be done.

20 Q. Who prepared that document?

21 A. I believe we had a hire, a guy came in and did
22 it, a guy named Jose.

23 Q. Is Jose his first name?

24 A. Uh-huh.

25 Q. What's his last name?

1 right?

2 A. Right, right.

3 Q. And who prepared the texts for each of these?

4 A. That's me.

5 Q. You wrote that.

6 A. Right.

7 Q. What was Mr. Touron's involvement, if any?

8 A. He did the research.

9 Q. What research did that involve?

10 A. We had to look in each file. We didn't know
11 anything about these files. Find out what had to be 12 done. He went and looked to see if there was any assets
13 we could go after, you know, if they were around. He's 14 very good at that.

15 Q. Is he an inventory attorney?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Is he an attorney?

18 A. No. He used to be a PI.

19 Q. Was he a full-time employee of the Penzell law
20 firm at the time?

21 A. No. At that time, no.

22 Q. Was he hired specifically to do that task, to 23 your knowledge?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did he engage in any other asset research

1 activity, if that characterizes his role, on any other
2 matters?

3 A. Yeah. He would look up assets. We had a
4 program, he had a computer program, and he goes and 5 looks up the stuff. He's trained to do that kind of 6 stuff.

7 Q. In the case of the status reports that are
8 attached in part of that exhibit, as part of that, how
9 did it work as between Mr. Touron's work and your work
10 in preparing the written summaries?

11 A. He gave me the information and I put it together.

12 Q. Did you review the work that he had done in that 13 regard?

14 A. Oh, absolutely.

15 Q. What review did you perform?

16 A. Well, he gave me what he found. You have a
17 computer program and you look up these things. He takes 18 the pages off and says -- like this guy says like here
19 professional licenses, this guy's got a commercial
20 pilot's license. That shows on the program.

21 Q. Which guy are you talking about?

22 A. Jack Hardee, Redland Air Conditioning. It shows
23 on the program that he's got a commercial pilot license
24 and he's an insurance broker, and he's got an SEC
25 license for NASDAQ or for the NASD. It shows all that

1 and done the work, but...

2 Q. Was it your hope to work for Premier in our own
3 individual capacity or as an inventory attorney?

4 A. As inventory attorney.

5 Q. But not in your individual capacity.

6 A. I really don't have a whole lot of clients like
7 this because I don't really like doing this, but it is 8 what it is.

9 Q. But your hope was that things could be arranged
10 such that Premier would send the Penzell law firm
11 business, correct?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. And once that occurred that you as inventory
14 attorney would work on Premier cases.

15 A. Right.

16 Q. Did that ever happen?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Why not?

19 A. Because they never sent -- they did send a
20 proposed retainer agreement, fee agreement, but it was 21 unacceptable, and they never sent -- they kept saying
22 well, what, you know, the terms, and they never sent 23 another retainer agreement.

24 Q. This document dated August 6th, 2002, that's been 25 marked as Exhibit 8 contains status reports which

1 than Ward?

2 MR. CORRIGAN: Objection. When you say
3 involving Premier Capital, what do you mean?

4 Q. Any other matter other than Ward.

5 A. If I did, I don't recall.

6 Q. Did you bill for your time in connection with 7 your contribution to the status reports that are part of
8 Exhibit 8?

9 A. I think we sent them a bill, and that included
10 all the costs because we had to pay Jose. When I say
11 we, the law firm. And we ended up paying out of our own
12 pocket because they never came up with any money.

13 Q. What were those costs that were billed; do you
14 know?

15 A. Whatever they say. There was like $15. When you
16 do the searches, we have to pay a fee for them.

17 Q. You're referring to various references to fees in 18 the status reports?

19 A. Yes. These are national searches for 15 bucks,
20 and to file a judgment lien, they have to be filed in 21 Tallahassee, is 20 bucks. Here's another one that's 22 $30. Just things like that.

23 Q. Is it your understanding that Premier Capital
24 owes anyone any money in connection with your legal 25 services as inventory attorney?

1 A. If you want to go down to the -- well, they owe
2 the estate, they don't owe me. They owe the estate for
3 anything that was paid to me or wasn't or wasn't paid,
4 like on the Ward matter.

5 Q. Is there some written record of that?

6 A. We went through a whole bunch of things and it
7 had fees added up, but I think we finally threw them
8 away when they wouldn't pay and I said it's not enough
9 money for me to worry about, it's not going to make a
10 change in my life.

11 Q. So your recollection is Premier wasn't given that 12 information?

13 A. Oh, they were given it. They ignored it.

14 Q. In what form were they given that information?

15 A. Well, this was the one on this money. I don't
16 think they were ever billed for the hourly fees.

17 Q. I'm referring to your time providing legal 18 services.

19 A. No, because it wasn't enough because I think
20 shortly thereafter is when we decided they weren't going
21 to send over a new retainer agreement and they wanted us
22 to do all this stuff and we weren't going to do it.
23 When I say we, the firm.

24 Q. The law firm, Kris Penzell law firm.

25 A. Yes.

1 A. No.

2 Q. Were you using that computer software in your own
3 practice that you identified earlier?

4 A. No, because that was for my private practice.

5 That wasn't for the Kris Penzell estate.

6 Q. How did you keep track of your time as inventory
7 attorney, then?

8 A. Oh, yes, I did, because I do it different. I
9 haven't used that in a couple of years, that form. Yes,
10 I did. I would write the name of the case and whatever
11 time and every six minutes, a tenth of an hour.

12 Q. At some point subsequent to the August 6, 2002,
13 date of the faxed status report marked as Exhibit 8, you
14 came to the conclusion that a written agreement was not
15 forthcoming.

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Between the Penzell law firm and Premier; is that
18 right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Once you formed that understanding, what, if
21 anything, did you do?

22 A. Nothing. I just didn't do anything else. You
23 understand, this status report was work that was sent to 24 Premier to say look, this is what you need to do, not
25 what I need to do, and they chose to do nothing, I chose

1 to do nothing.

2 Q. What happened to the matters referenced in the 3 status reports once you formed that conclusion?

4 A. What do you mean? What matters are you talking
5 about, those cases?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. Those are not our cases. Those were Premier's
8 cases. Whatever they decided to do, they had to do what 9 they had to do.

10 Q. Well, your role, as I understand it, as inventory
11 attorney involved -- I think you put it as wrapping
12 things up, that was part of your function.

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. What, if anything, did you do to wrap things up
15 with Premier subsequent to your forming the 16 understanding that there ain't no agreement forthcoming
17 between Penzell law firm and Premier?

18 A. Well, because there was never an initial 19 agreement, so I had nothing to wrap up, so there was 20 nothing to do.

21 Q. What became of the matters referenced in Exhibit
22 8?

23 A. Not my problem.

24 Q. Whose problem was it?

25 A. Premier.

1 A. Because I didn't owe them any duty, for one
2 thing, because they weren't my client, they weren't
3 Kris's client, they were a prospective client, we said
4 send us a retainer agreement, the retainer agreement was
5 sent back, saying it wasn't what we wanted, and Bev
6 discussed with them what we wanted, and when it wasn't
7 forthcoming, you know what? I told Bev forget it, don't
8 deal with them anymore, we've got enough to handle here.

9 Q. Did you ever convey that to Mr. Maimonis?

10 A. No. I don't know if he was still working --
11 shortly after here I think is when he quit or faded off
12 into the sunset somewhere.

13 Q. Did you ask Mrs. Penzell to convey that to Mr.
14 Maimonis you were not going to do any more work?

15 MR. CORRIGAN: Objection to form. She never 16 testified about any work.

17 THE WITNESS: I haven't done any work.

18 Q. Further work.

19 MR. CORRIGAN: Objection.

20 Q. I understand what you're saying.

21 A. I didn't do any further work. I worked for the 22 estate of Kris Penzell. I was never retained, no fee
23 agreement was signed, it wasn't Kris's client, it wasn't
24 my client, it wasn't Victor's client.

25 Q. Were those matters referenced in Exhibit 9 and

1 A. You can ask me.

2 Q. Have you seen the document marked as Exhibit 11
3 before?

4 A. Yes, I have; not together, but separately.

5 Q. Could you identify it and inclusive of its
6 attachments, for the record?

7 A. It's a cover letter to Judge Farina asking for an 8 emergency motion for direction by the court because we 9 had at this time --

10 Q. Before we get into the substance, just 11 generically identify it.

12 A. Emergency motion for direction by the court.

13 Q. Are there exhibits to that?

14 MR. CORRIGAN: Filed by you, correct?

15 Q. Filed by me, correct?

16 A. Yes. Hoisington & Morrissey, a Professional
17 Association, a letter to me from you.

18 Q. From you being?

19 A. You being Tom Morrissey. Another letter on 20 letterhead of Kris E. Penzell and then the status
21 report.

22 Q. Which I believe may have been attached to my 23 letter, is that correct, as exhibits?

24 A. Yes. A copy of the original complaint against 25 Bev and the estate.

1 Q. In the action that we're here on today; is that
2 correct?

3 A. Yes. And the request for hearing, a special
4 setting.

5 Q. Why did you file that motion, ma'am?

6 A. Because Bev had received a phone call asking for 7 the files. Under Florida law, and I'm assuming we're 8 talking Florida law because these are Florida cases, we 9 are required to maintain the files for seven years.
10 What do you do when you give up files? When the file is 11 old on these bank cases, you make copies, the bank gets
12 the copy, we maintain the original. We asked direction
13 from the court what do we do now. They want the files.
14 This letter says that Bev has withheld the files and all
15 this. We have a duty to hold them, keep them together.

16 Q. And your duty to hold them is a matter of the 17 Florida law that you referred to?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. To keep files together for a period of seven
20 years?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. That contains a motion, correct, after the cover
23 letter?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And it has various numbered paragraphs, is that

1 right, the emergency motion?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Directing your attention to paragraph 7 of the 4 motion.

5 A. Mr. Penzell, as the attorney of record on the 6 above-styled cases, worked on a contingency fee basis.
7 However, because there was no completed collection on 8 these cases, there is an attorney's lien on each file by 9 Kris E. Penzell, PA.

10 Q. Did you ever communicate to Premier that there
11 was an attorney's lien on any of those files?

12 A. No. Didn't have to.

13 Q. Why not?

14 A. Because in the purchase and sale agreement you
15 stated or Premier stated, in it it states that you have,
16 and they cited whoever bought them, that they had
17 researched the files and they were aware of their duties
18 and so forth.

19 Q. So as of the date of that motion, was it your
20 understanding that because there was an attorney's lien
21 on those files that the files could not be returned to 22 Premier?

23 A. No. Any file in the state of Florida, we have a
24 duty under Florida law to keep them for seven years.

25 Q. It had nothing to do with the attorney's lien?

Dear Nick:

Attached you will please find a status summary of the diligence afforded the Premier files forwarded to this office. The summary indicates a brief background of what we have found and what was done so far, including the date of the searches with number of pages, status of our in-house report with number of pages, what inquiry is in process, suggested immediate action, recording details and out of pocket expenses.

We have conducted a national search on each and every file over the past couple of months and methodically detailed the research and inquiry accomplished. Be advised that the initial searches, at a cost of $15.00 each, reveal, where applicable, among other information, the following:

- A. Current addresses
- B. Driver's Licenses
- C. Vehicle ownership
- D. Real property ownership
- E. Corporate involvement
- F. Telephone numbers
- G. Bankruptcy
- H. Judgment liens
- I. Traffic infractions
- J. Worker's Comp claims

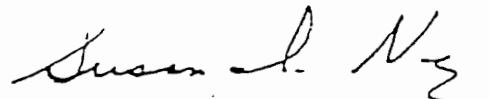

We use the above leads to verify, explore and research many other avenues of inquiry before suggesting expending the costs of scheduling depositions, subpoenaeing records and attempting service of process. In most of the files we have prior research which has been used as a comparison.

Bradley, Andrew	$24,585.50
Bradley, Therese & Bradley Boat Repairs	1/4/99 Judgment

Dade County State Atty's office looking for Mr. Bradley for non-payment Of Child Support. BKC attempted in 1999 but dismissed; He had been sending child support payments drawn on a Bradley Boat Repair account with a last post office box address in St Thomas. however, a check there on him with the Director of Licensing and Consumer Affairs ... reveals no records on him. Bahamas inquiry and additional St Thomas inquiry needs authorization. Wife Therese is a debtor and may have assets but she is probably considered head of household and we may not be able to collect from her. Years ago Family court records indicate Therese believed Andrew hiding assets ($76,000) while pleading poverty, visiting girlfriend in Bahamas. is a Citizen of Belize not U.S.;
